

Table with multiple columns for various agricultural and administrative metrics, including crop types, land area, and financial data. The table is organized into several sections with sub-headers for different categories.